Readiness and Affordability

We help drive innovation in the Department of Defense to curtail and reduce rising costs to sustain operations today, while making critical modernization investments for future success. We execute an integrated approach leveraging engineers, maintenance experts, and supply chain managers to reduce the cost of sustainment, and improve the readiness of deploying forces – guided by the following tenets:

- Design for Affordability (DfA)
- Total ownership cost reduction (TOC)
- Component level diagnostics and component find fix teams to exhaustively identify root causes of sustainment issues using 12 Integrated Product Support (IPS) Elements
- Independent, integrated program reviews (I2PR)
- Supply chain illumination, industrial base analysis, open source due diligence, and strategic sourcing
