Steps Taken in our Core Business to Address Modern Slavery

- Guidehouse's RI2SE values of Respect, Integrity, Innovation, Stewardship and Excellence are the essence of our identity. They support our vision, drive our culture, and shape our employees' conduct.
- Guidehouse's Code of Conduct provides guidance on critical policies and regulations that impact our business operations that Guidehouse expects every employee to know and follow. The Code states that no employee shall take unfair advantage of anyone through manipulation, concealment, abuse of privileged or confidential information, misrepresentation of material facts or any other unfair dealing practices.
- All Guidehouse UK employees are required to read the Code of Conduct and confirm they will adhere to the Code when they join Guidehouse UK, and annually thereafter.
- Guidehouse's corporate policies includes a Global Anti-Human Trafficking policy outlining the requirements of employees, vendors, and agents with respect to anti-human trafficking. Additionally, our Global Human Rights Statement policy outlines the steps individuals can take in preventing, identifying, and stopping human rights abuse.
- Guidehouse UK has a robust recruitment policy that includes conducting background checks confirming eligibility to work in the UK and other countries in which we operate to safeguard against human trafficking or individuals being forced to work against their will.
- Guidehouse UK requires new employees to take compliance training that includes the course Protecting Human Rights that provides an overview of human rights and steps to prevent activities such as human trafficking, forced labor, and other forms of modern slavery.
- Guidehouse UK encourages its employees to report any issues or concerns they may have about potential ethics violations or other potentially illegal conduct, which may include modern slavery/human trafficking. We provide a confidential, 24-hour telephone hotline and internet-based reporting service to report issues or concerns. Employees can report concerns in a completely anonymous and confidential manner.

Steps Taken in our Supply Chain to Address Modern Slavery

Guidehouse UK's vendor relationships are based on lawful, efficient and fair practices. We expect our vendors to obey the laws that require them to treat workers fairly and provide a safe and healthy work environment. Guidehouse UK will not knowingly use any vendor that uses forced, prison, or indentured labor.

Guidehouse's Vendor Code of Conduct (the "Vendor Code") summarizes the principles of honest and ethical conduct for Guidehouse UK vendors and is available to all vendors on Guidehouse's website, Guidehouse.com. The Vendor Code states that no vendor shall take unfair advantage of anyone through manipulation, concealment, abuse of privileged or confidential information, misrepresentation of material facts or any other unfair dealing practice. The Vendor Code also states that it is the responsibility of every vendor to help Guidehouse provide a work atmosphere free of harassing, abusive, disrespectful, disorderly, disruptive or other nonprofessional conduct. Additionally, the Vendor Code states that vendors must take steps to ensure that slavery and human trafficking are not taking place as part of their business or supply chains and are expected to fully comply with all anti-human trafficking and anti-modern slavery laws.

Guidehouse's Global Human Rights Statement was revised and made available on Guidehouse's website, Guidehouse.com, this past year. The Statement summarizes Guidehouse's commitment to respect and uphold the human rights of our people and any other individuals with whom we are directly or indirectly in contact. Guidehouse will guard against complicity in human rights abuses, comply with applicable labor and employment laws, and draw on internationally recognized labor principles governing how we do business.

Guidehouse UK requires new independent contractors and subcontractors confirm they will adhere to the Vendor Code when they enter a contractual relationship with Guidehouse or abide by their own company Code if one is established.

Guidehouse UK conducts due diligence on vendors that includes an online search to check the vendor's reportable offenses through a third-party assessment and risk mitigation tool.
