Strategy, Growth & Consolidation Consulting

“Guidehouse actually exceeded our expectations. They were very instrumental in the process. We ended up with a result that would have been unthinkable before. Another reason why they exceeded our expectations is the final asset purchase agreement. That far exceeded any of our wildest expectations in terms of what we would be able to achieve.” — CEO/President | Dec 2020

“The team we are using from Guidehouse has real, in-the-trenches experience in the areas where we need help. The team members have done consulting engagements across the country, so they know what works in what setting and with what system. That is a real benefit. I haven’t seen anything from Guidehouse that I would say was a challenge. The vendor has been pretty good. They have worked with plans like ours before.” — CEO/President | Jan 2021

Value-Based Care Consulting

“Guidehouse did a deep analysis into value-based care. They showed us the trends and initiatives that we should be considering, and they gave us insights about incentives and how the market would perceive what we are doing. Guidehouse was really good about going back and forth with the comments and questions we had. They gave us best practices, ideas, and insights. There will likely be additional opportunities for Guidehouse in other markets based on the great work they did for us.”

“Guidehouse is awesome. They are a really good company to partner with. They are very professional, straightforward, and honest. When we first brought them on, we wanted them to address some of our backlog. Guidehouse was honest. They said that they would do their due diligence. They didn’t give us false hope or make any promises that they couldn’t keep. The vendor was very straightforward about the timeline that it would take for us to get caught up. It was a little bit longer than we wanted, but it was realistic, and they did it. Guidehouse is definitely a good company to work with.” — Director | Jan 2021
